Press release

FINANCIAL ADVISORY COMPANY RESILIENCE PATRIMOINE JOINS RHETORES GROUP

A few months after the equity investment of Activa Capital and the acquisition of Cap Fidelis, Rhétorès Group, managed by Stéphane Rudzinski and Grégory Soudjoukdjian, announces the acquisition of Résilience Patrimoine.

The operation represents an important milestone in the reinforcement and development of the Rhétorès' Lille division, started with the acquisition of Cap Fidelis.

Founded in 2015 by Joachim Martellier, Résilience Patrimoine is a wealth management advisory firm active in the Lille area. From its creation, the company has grown organically and has supported its clients in the management and supervision of their financial assets. Its founder, Joachim Martellier, is reinvesting all his shares in the operation.

The acquisition of Résilience Patrimoine is part of Group's strong growth strategy and takes it to a new dimension. Rhétorès is benefiting from a bullish organic growth and has major development ambitions for the coming years. The common objective is to bring together the best wealth management advisors in France who share the same values of commitment, transparency and innovation in a market undergoing structural changes.

Stéphane Rudzinski and Grégory Soudjoukdjian, co-founders of Rhétorès, welcomed the operation: "Résilience Patrimoine is perfectly in line with our strategy of bringing together the best wealth management advisers in France. The complementary nature of our expertise and the strengthening of our geographical coverage will enable us to provide even more value and satisfaction to our respective clients. We are delighted and proud to welcome Joachim to our group!"

Joachim Martellier: "I am glad that this project succeeded. We share common values and have the same vision on the evolution of our profession. I am convinced that our group will become a reference in the wealth management and family office business in our beautiful region of Hauts-de-France."

Christophe Parier and Alexandre Masson, Managing Partners of Activa Capital, added: "Since the beginning of our association, we have endeavored to work alongside Stéphane and Grégory on the strategic aspects of their business. We are delighted with this partnership with Résilience Patrimoine which represents a strong strategic interest for the group".
